

SPS Junior Travel Award Application

2016 SPS/CSPT/JSPS Joint Meeting

Vancouver, BC ~ September 18-21, 2016

DEADLINE FOR APPLICATION: JULY 1, 2016

Eligibility Criteria: Eligible candidates include students (undergraduate or graduate), technical staff, and junior scientists, post-doctoral fellows (< 5 years), and early career lab heads. The candidate should have less than 10 years experience in the field of safety pharmacology. Candidates may come from within academia, contract research organizations, pharmaceutical or biotechnology industry, government or engaged in preclinical research in safety pharmacology.

Exclusion criteria include previous Junior Travel Award winners, professors (undergraduate or graduate programs) and management personnel (e.g. laboratory head, principal investigator, or supervisor/mentor).

1. Submit abstract online by June 15.
2. Application form and a summary paper describing the research (approximately 500 words) sent as an email attachment. Note: Summary may be in abstract form, but needs to include: Introduction, Objective, Brief description of methods used, results/findings and conclusion.
3. Resumé or curriculum vitae (CV) sent as an email attachment with item #1.
4. One letter from a Faculty member/Supervisor/Principal Investigator. Letters of recommendation/nomination should be signed and sent, mailed, electronically (e.g. PDF format sent as an email attachment) or Faxed to the society. The letter should discuss the potential of the applicant to contribute to the field of safety pharmacology and if there are more than one author on the abstract, the letter should also specify the contribution of the travel award applicant to the work, including what aspects of the work the applicant performed.
5. All material should be sent to SPS Headquarters:
Email: Krystle Correll
Fax: 703.438.3113
Mailing Address: 1821 Michael Faraday Drive, Suite 300, Reston, VA 20190

The Jr. Investigator Travel award shall consist of:

1. Up to $1,500 reimbursement of reasonable travel expenses (receipts are required)
2. Complimentary registration for the Annual Meeting
3. Complimentary SPS membership for one year.
4. Winners are required to present a poster for the SPS meeting, attend the poster presentation and the Award announcement for ceremony.

NOTE—the poster may also be entered in the Junior Investigator Poster Competition by checking the appropriate box when submitting your abstract online.

The awardees will be notified two weeks after the application deadline and the abstract will be published on the SPS Annual Meeting Web site. The Award is not transferable and must be returned to SPS if the awardee does not present a poster and attend the SPS Annual Meeting & Award announcement (i.e., if the awardee cannot come and sends the poster with a colleague, the colleague cannot claim the travel award).

Safety Pharmacology Society

2016 Junior Travel Award Application

Name (First name, Middle Initial, Last name)

Address

City, State, Country Zip

Phone

Fax

Email

Company or Institution

Return application and required materials (see previous page) to:

SPS Headquarters, 1821 Michael Faraday Drive, Suite 300, Reston, VA 20190.

Applications need to be received on or before the deadline of July 1, 2016 in order for it to be considered for the 2016 Junior Travel Award.

Note: All applicants may also submit their abstract for the Junior Investigator Poster Competition. If you are interested in also submitting an abstract for the Poster Competition, please follow directions for the Abstract Submission on the Safety Pharmacology Society Annual Meeting Website. There is a 250 word limit to the body of your abstract submitted online.

Signature

Date